What is Free Dress Week? Free Dress Week is an optional time where students are welcome to choose a dance outfit to wear to class that is different from the typically required black leotard.

What is allowed? Students may wear different colored or designed leotards, attached or separate skirts and tutus, or previous dance recital costumes. Male students may wear a different colored shirt.

What is not allowed? No dress up costumes or dresses that are not intended specifically for dance class or recitals. For example, students may not come in an Elsa costume that is intended for pretend play.
